

Children's Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA) Privacy Notice

Children's Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA) requires that we gain verifiable consent for your child to participate in the 2024 International Incheon City Seo-gu Youth Center Competition. We are asking for your permission to retain your child's information and adult sponsor's (parent/guardian) name and email in order to track student participation, accept student submissions, notify winners, and distribute awards. If you consent, we may use your child's name, grade, and hometown (city, country) in program-related outreach.

Dear Parent or Guardian,

Your child is participating in the 2024 International Incheon City Seo-gu Youth Center Competition, a competition organized by Incheon City Seo-gu of Korea, a government-sponsored organization.

To participate, your child must provide his/her personal information, his/her competition submission, and an adult sponsor's first and last name and email address. Since your child is not in high school, the information collected will be kept confidential in compliance with the Children's Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA).

- The personal information provided by the child is used to track program participation, accept student projects, notify program winners, and distribute awards.
- Only with parent/guardian consent, the child's information may be used to promote the program.
- No information will be disclosed to third parties.

Please complete the attached Parent/Guardian Consent Form.
